

LEED® Credit from Keene

How Keene can Help You Achieve LEED® Credits

The Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED®) Green Building Rating System™ signifies U.S. Green Building Council's endeavor to provide a national rating system for developing sustainable building designs and construction. These guidelines help create "green buildings" by using natural resources without destroying the ecological equilibrium.

2 Credits for Regional Materials

✓ There are 2 credits you can receive within a 500-mile radius, MR Credit 5

1. MR 5.1 (1 point)

10% of the total material/products have been retrieved, gathered and manufactured within a 500-mile radius of the project site

2. MR 5.2 (1 point in addition to MR 5.1)

20% of the total material/products have been retrieved, gathered and manufactured within a 500-mile radius of the project site
